BLACK SHIP LITTLE KATANA

East and West collided in 1852, when Matthew Perry of the USA Steam Navy was assigned to open ports to the west trade. Saltwater stained his metal ships black as he made his way to Japan and therefore, the Japanese referred to them as “black ships.” The story is brought to life in traditional Japanese, Korean and American dishes.

BOB'S STEAK & CHOP HOUSE

Bob's Steak & Chop House is a nationally renowned steak house specializing in the finest corn-fed, Midwestern prime beef. The menu formula at this Dallas culinary landmark is simple: incredible meat, gigantic shrimp, fabulous salads and decadent desserts. Classic steak house food prepared and presented in a manner that Bon Appétit calls "the kind of fare you'll want to go back for again and again."

CAFE HERRERA

Amelia Herrera opened her first restaurant on Maple Avenue in 1971, with just nine tables and a dream of leaving each one of her children with a restaurant of their own. Today, her legacy continues on with Cafe Herrera, a new generation of Herrera restaurants serving contemporary Mexican food and cocktails. Locals and guests can sip signature margaritas while enjoying the spacious patio and dining on classic enchiladas, street tacos and fajitas.
